

Do NOT dissolve cross-ownership laws in print and TV media.

By dissolving media cross ownership laws you are in effect eliminating diversity of information by limiting the number of sources who can realistically reach the general populace.